

Recap CORR Meeting – May 1, 2019

Present – Iris Burse, Gail Johnson, Bill Konrardy, Shawn Moore, Fred Reuning

Key conversation was around our presentation at the annual conference

- Finishing touches are being put on the graphic
- Cindy Gregorson sent an email to the group confirming the progress we have made and providing a setting for our presentation
- We used Fred's outline – sent 4/26 – as the basis of our plan

The Presentation -

- We will present sometime between 10 and 12 on Wednesday, June 19. We have 14 minutes (including the poem)
- Dana will briefly introduce Guante (less than a minute)
- Guante will present his poem Quicksand (4 mins)
- Shawn will touch on the purpose of GCORR, the three circles, and what MNCORR is doing – in 4 mins or less
- Fred will talk about Minnetonka – why and what they have done and the IMPACT – in 3 mins or less
- Dana will talk about the action each church can take, the Racial Reconciliation Movement materials on the tables, and the workshop October 26 – in 3 mins or less

Table at Annual Conference

- In addition to the presentation – we will have a table in the missions area (hallway) that we will want to staff during breaks and especially from 4:30-7 on Wednesday afternoon.
- Bill Konrardy and Iris Burse will coordinate materials and arrange for staffing. Let them know if you can help

October Event

- An action we are asking churches to take part in gatherings to share, learn and be inspired.
- October 26 (Oct 12 is alternate) at either Park Ave or Brooklyn UMCs
- Probably 10 am to 4 pm, may change slightly.
- Gail will contact churches about hosting, which will include sharing what they are doing.
- Event will have worship, presentation and sharing. Lunch will be provided.

Next Meeting – Thursday, May 30, noon, Conference center or remote

- Run through/rehearsal of presentations
- Discussion of table materials and needs
- Review of materials to be distributed (I will try to send in advance)
- Discussion of who will be present at AC (even if not speaking)
- General plans for October gathering so that it can be promoted at AC
- Other items as needed