

CORR Meeting Recap – Sept 5, 2019

With apologies to anyone who tried to participate remotely. We had electrical problems in the meeting room, relocated and discovered the meeting ID shared was incorrect.

Present – Shawn Moore, Suzanne Mades, Bill Konrardy, Dana Neuhauser, Steve Reiser, Gail Johnson

IDI Funding Request

Jia Starr Brown is asking for funding ($1800) to attend IDI facilitator training. After discussion about the use of this tool, it was agreed to fund this training with the understanding that Jia would apply these skills for CORR's ministries as well as her own ministries.

Racial Reconciliation Movement

Our presentation at Annual Conference went very well. Guante's poem, Quicksand, was cited by at least 10 people as their standout moment of the event.

All participants were presented with copies of the brochure, covenant and evaluation and encouraged to take them home to their churches.

Nine people at 6 different churches expressed interest in moving forward.

Bill Konrardy is going to take ownership of administering the Racial Reconciliation Movement. He will contact these people and churches and help get them connected to the resources and people who can propel them on their journey.

October 26 Gathering - What Now? Racial Reconciliation Movement in MN UMC

Promoted as part of the Racial Reconciliation Movement are bi-annual meetings, the first of which is Saturday, October 26, 10 am to 4 pm, at Faith St. Anthony.
