

Minnesota Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church

2020 FINANCIAL AID PROGRAMS Minnesota Annual Conference and Foundation

The following grant is sponsored and funded by the Dakotas-Minnesota Area of the United Methodist Church's Ministerial Excellence Fund awarded with support from Lilly Endowment. For more information and to apply, visit here.

Investing In Leaders Financial Well-being Resource Grant

Previously call the Student Debt Reduction Grant, this grant has been expanded to improve the financial well-being of clergy in the Dakotas and Minnesota Conferences. The grant offers up to $5,000 towards education debt reduction and connects clergy to the knowledge, skills, and resources needed to achieve financial health goals.

The following grants and scholarships are sponsored and funded by the Board of Ordained Ministry and the Ministerial Education Fund (MEF). For more information and to apply, visit clergy grants or clergy forms.

MEF Grants for Seminary Debt Reduction Assistance

Clergy serving in a MAC appointment or, if they are members of the MAC, while they are serving in extension ministry, are eligible for up to five $2,000 annual grants to reduce seminary debt for a master's degree in an appropriate field from an approved seminary. Current, demonstrated debt must exceed the amount of the grant application. Eligibility to apply for a grant expires ten years following graduation.

MEF Grants for Continuing Education Course or Event

Clergy may apply for grants up to $700 each quadrennium for continuing education courses or events. This support is intended to supplement, but not replace, local budgets supporting clergy continuing education. For purposes of administration of Ministerial Education Fund grants, where applicable, a quadrennium shall run January 1 through December 31 consistent with the budgeting and reporting calendar for these funds.

MEF Grants for Course of Study

Licensed local pastors in full or part time appointments in the Minnesota Annual Conference may apply for a grant of $400 for each course in the Course of Study to assist with registration fee, tuition, and room and board. Applications for MEF grants for Course of Study may be made at the time costs will be incurred, such as at the time of registration, or following completion of a course.

MEF Grants for Doctorate of Ministry Studies

Clergy may apply for up to two grants of $1,000 each in separate years while they are enrolled in a Doctorate program supporting the call to ministry.

MEF Grants for Licensing School

Certified candidates and certified lay ministers in the Minnesota Annual Conference may apply for a grant for reimbursement of the cost of licensing school registration and tuition fees. One half of the expenses for books will be reimbursed. Transportation expenses are not reimbursable. Applications for MEF grants for Licensing School may be made at the time costs will be incurred, such as at the time of registration, or following completion of the school.

MEF Seminary Scholarship

Seminary scholarships are available once a year for any person who has begun the candidacy process in the Minnesota Annual Conference up to a maximum of three full-time scholarships. Full time annual scholarships are given in the amounts of

- $5,000 for a student attending a United Methodist seminary; or
- $3,000 for a student attending an approved seminary outside the boundaries of Minnesota; or
- $2,000 for a student attending an approved seminary within Minnesota.

MEF Grants for Formational and Spiritual Growth Leave

Up to $1500 is available to clergy who request a formational and spiritual growth leave for fees and other expenses for courses and events related to formation and spiritual growth. Clergy must be under appointment for at least six years to be eligible and continue to hold an appointment during the leave (up to six months).

MEF Grants to Churches During Approved Clergy Leave

Grants are available to churches from the Ministerial Education Fund for pulpit supply or the most important need of the church community during approved clergy leaves for:

1. Formational and Spiritual Growth Clergy may apply for a grant up to $100.00 per week for the period of the approved leave to each of their appointed church(es).
2. Continuing Education and Spiritual Growth: Clergy may apply for a grant up to $100.00 per week for a maximum of four weeks to each of their appointed church(es).

The purpose of these grants is to assist churches in supporting clergy leaves that exceed normal annual budgeting for pulpit supply during, for example, clergy vacations. Applications for Grants to Churches for clergy services must be accompanied by a copy of the approved clergy leave application.

Grant applications are normally reviewed monthly by the Board of Ordained Ministry. Once approved, payments are typically processed within one week. Grants for pulpit supply are paid directly to churches.

Spiritual Direction and Coaching Financial Assistance

This program provides financial assistance to clergy and their spouses who are seeking spiritual direction and/or coaching from professional/certified directors or coaches. The program allows payment up to 50 percent of the cost of a session with a maximum payment of $40 per session. There is a $300 limit per individual per year or $1200 per quadrennium. There is a limit of 12 sessions per year.

Counseling Resources and Financial Aid

Clergy who have exhausted their health benefits for counseling services for themselves or any family member who is on their health plan, may apply for additional financial support for up to $1000 per individual per calendar year. The financial aid may be applied to half the cost of the insurance deductible, or half of the cost of 12 counseling hours, not to exceed $65 hour.

The General Board of Higher Education and Ministry sponsors 70 scholarship programs using one general application under the categories of:

Dollars for Scholars Scholarship

The Minnesota United Methodist Foundation (MNUMF) has joined the Dollars for Scholars program with the United Methodist Higher Education Foundation (UMHEF) to provide scholarship aid for United Methodist students from Minnesota who attend United Methodist-related schools, colleges, universities and seminaries in the United States. Under the program, UMHEF will provide a $1,000 matching scholarship when the student’s local church raises $1,000 to assist them in attending a UM-related school. In addition, the UM school and the MN United Methodist Foundation also will provide matching $1,000 scholarships, for a total award of $4,000.

The following scholarships are sponsored by the United Methodist Higher Education Foundation. For more information and to apply, visit <https://www.umhef.org/scholarship-search>.

Named Endowed Scholarships

The United Methodist Higher Education Foundation (UMHEF) General Application is used for a number of named scholarship funds established by various donors. Some of the funds stipulate that applicants meet certain eligibility criteria, i.e., resident of specific conference, majoring in specified field, etc. Scholarship fund descriptions are available at www.umhef.org. Applicants will be considered for all scholarships they qualify for, but are eligible to receive only one award per year from UMHEF funds. Renewal applicants must submit a new application each year.

The following scholarships or grants are not sponsored by the Minnesota Annual Conference or a United Methodist organization. This information is provided as additional sources of scholarships and grants to look into. Read each description for information on how to apply.
